

THE COLDEST GIRL

MATTHEW J. HOOPER
ILLUSTRATED BY CHARLOTTE A. BLAKE

ReadMaster

Retrieval

To which the girl replied:

"I am Meira Wren.
I was born on the coldest day of the year,
in the coldest place in the world.
My veins are filled with ice.
I do not get cold.
But whatever you do, do not put me in the sun."

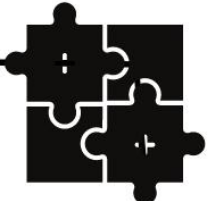

Tick 2 things Meira said
about herself:

She was always cold. ☐

She was born in the coldest place. ☐

Her veins were filled with
ice. ☐

She loved going into the
sun. ☐

Weeks later, Meira's mom came home late.
She could hear the shower running.

Why is Meira's mom always worried about her?
Tick one.

She's afraid of the cold. ☐

She thinks Meira doesn't listen. ☐

She thinks Meira will get sick. ☐

She came home too late. ☐

Remember to use your strategies to help you:

Match it! Match the words in the question that are in the text.

Copy it! Look for answers that copied closely from the text.

Read it! Read the question to spot
the information you need to find.

Check it! Check you have given the right number of answers.

Link it! Link the choices given to what is happening in the story.